STONE CREEK COMMONS

Winter 2011

Kinex Fitness Studios, is excited to be the newest fitness facility in the C-U area. It offers one-on-one personal training, small-group (2-4 people) training and group fitness classes. Unlike traditional gyms, Kinex Studios does not charge a membership fee. Instead, clients only pay for the services they choose.

While training at Kinex Studios, each client is reserved space and equipment exclusivity for the duration of their training session via a unique four-quadrant design. Consequently, Kinex Studios guarantees that every client will receive a hyper-focused result-driven training session free from interruptions of other members. The highest degree of personal service coupled with unparalleled results from Kinex Studios proven four-quadrant represents the maximum value a client can receive for their training investment.

Phone: 344-6600

To celebrate its grand opening during November, Kinex Studios is offering a free 30 minute personal training session as well as free group fitness classes (Zumba, Hip Hop Hustle and Yoga). Additionally, by popular demand, Kinex Studios will be opening a brand new training studio in the coming months to meet the needs of C-U's group fitness community.

Stop by The Pines and visit Kinex Studios, 2740 South Philo Road, Suite F, Urbana to take a free tour of the facility and/or a free group fitness class. While you are there don't forget to ask about your free 30 minute session with a Kinex Personal Trainer!

Enjoy the family fun of selecting your Christmas tree at Moore Trees. Choose from rows of "Choose & Cut" trees or large "Precut Illinois Grown" trees that are being shipped in right before Thanksgiving to ensure the freshness that you are used to with Moore Trees! Don't forget about your holiday wreath while you are at the farm. Have a custom wreath made (up to 60") or purchase one on display in the gift shop.
